The K. of P. of Logan, attended memorial service in Nelsonville on last Sunday, a return courtesy.

Miss Gertrude Tracy, one of our most esteemed teachers, will spend her vacation with her mother in Columbus.

Col. Curran, representing the New Mexico Copper Mine in which a number of our leading citizens are interested, is a visitor in our city this week.

Mr. Clarke Darst, one of McArthur active democrats and late Secretary of the Hocking Vinton district, was a visitor in our city on last Monday.

Resolved, by the Democracy of Hocking county in this convention for ratification of the primary election vote for Delegates to the State convention, hereby pledge support to Col. James Kilbourne as our choice for governor, and request and instruct the Delegates elected, to use all honorable means in securing his nomination.

Admiral Tony Barleone, of McArthur was a visitor in our city this week and had a hearty welcome from his many friends. The old navigator is in good health and spirits, and proposes at an early date to either launch his good ship Kachael on the quiet Gander creek or start a newspaper in the boiling political waters of Vinton.

The feast of Corpus Christi was celebrated at St. John's Catholic church last Sunday and the exercises were very impressive. The children of the Sunday school classes the girls veiled in white, formed in procession following the Standard of the Cross, paraded the aisles strewing flowers before the priest carrying the Host. Miss Anna Pierce presided at the organ; the choir, led by Miss Clara Rausch and Mrs. Frank Blasius rendered the choicest music. The procession was under direction of the Misses Anna Powers and Dora Nell Green. No more impressive service has ever been witnessed in St. John's church than this in testimony of a fundamental belief. The church was crowded, many good people of other denominations and strangers visiting in the city attending.

After Our Oil.

The Standard Oil Co. has begun the laying of a pipe line from Corning to the Ash Grove oil field. This pipe line will lead from the Corning connection to the Marietta refineries and from thence to all the world outside.

The Standard Oil Company does not invest hundreds of thousands of dollars, in a pipe line, unless they reach a profitable field.

The line will be about forty miles in length, will pass, in a bee line, near Sand Run, a mile north of Haydenville and Union Furnace and quite near the Cedar Grove post office.

The matter of right away, topography of country, and other incidental matters may influence the final determination of the route.

The Somerset Bank Robbers Convicted.

The court in New Lexington was occupied all of last week, in the trial of six persons charged with the robbery of the Somerset Bank, on the night of March 25.

The robbers dynamited the safe and secured about $4,000 cash and some valuable papers amounting to about $6,000. The citizens aroused by the explosion were terrorized by armed men stationed around in the vicinity who shot at and threatened to shoot every person appearing at a door or window or on the street. There were seven of the gang. Six were captured near Thornville, the seventh man with the money escaped.

The robbers plead an alibi in defense but some were identified by Somerset citizens, and in their possession when arrested, they had the implements of robbery, and could not explain the reason, as common traps, for carrying explosives, guns and instruments for picking or breaking locks.

Judge Wright on Tuesday sentenced them to a term of ten years in the Ohio Penitentiary.

The case was ably tried and was largely attended by citizens of Perry and surrounding counties. Senator Fink and attorney Price assisted the prosecution. Donahue and Spencer represented the defense.

An Important Test Tax Case.

Judge Wright held court on Monday evening to hear arguments in an important, and in a measure, a novel tax case.

The auditor of the county last March added what he thought proper, an addition to the valuation returned and heretofore fixed, on the property of the Logan Natural Gas Co. Suit was brought for the collection of the tax by the Treasurer. The legality of the additional valuation by the auditor was denied by the Gas Co. and the law questions involved became an issue before the court. The prosecuting attorney, assisted by Judge McGilvray, appeared for the Treasurer, and Hon. L. T. Neal for the Gas Co. The case was ably argued and created much interest among the attorneys, all of the Bar being present. Judge Wright will give his decision at the next session of court.

Boxwell Commencement.

Cadet Examination.

The competitive examination held here Monday and Tuesday to determine upon an applicant for recommendation to the naval academy at Annapolis, resulted in the recommendation of Vance Organ, of McArthur; Orla Baker of Segoe, Perry County, second; Harley Bratton of McArthur, third; and John Bowen of Logan, fourth. There were seven applicants. The examining board was composed of Dr. W. N. Alderman, Prof. B. O. Higley, of Athens, Prof. West, of Middleport, F. I. Bright, of Logan, Prof. M. A. Henson, of McArthur, Binckley of New Lexington, and Jordan of Chillicothe—Athens Messenger.

The Salt Creek Turnpike has for many years been the only highway toll road in the state. At the present session of the Commissioners, on the recommendation of leading taxpayers and citizens of the west, and the Pike has been purchased and will be a free road. The price agreed upon is at the rate of $300,000 a mile, about one-fourth the usual cost, for making roads of this kind. The Commissioners are to be commended for their action in this matter.

Agents Wanted.

A reliable and energetic man wanted to handle our line of celebrated teas, coffees, spices, baking powder, etc., on liberal commission in Logan and vicinity. The position will be permanent and well paying. A salary bond of $300.00 required. For terms, address at once, GRAND UNION TEA CO., Wheeling, West Va.

What Is All This About?

A Memorial Echo.

Past, but not forgotten, are the events, services and throng of people on Decoration Day in the metropolis of the Hocking Valley, "Logan" on the 30th.

As we stood upon the northern summit of Market Street, our eyes beheld nothing but one solid mass of humanity, old and young, people of all denominations, creed, sex and color, marching toward the city of repose: "pretty grave."

Why is all this? The editor of the SENTINEL, asked the writer, a question we at the time were unable to answer, but as we sat in deep meditation upon the steps of the Catholic church, the village of Logan to our right, dotted with beautiful homes, trees, churches and schools, Oak Grove to our left, where the hand of Love had planted trees and monuments; then the question again came to our mind.

"Why is all this?" We looked upon the mass of people, as constituting one great family, and the cemetery on yonder hill, appeared to us, as the album of this great family, wherein death had written its terrible autograph upon the vaults, monuments and little mounds of loved ones, who had been transferred from the family of Logan. Hence the Pilgrimage en masse; hence this music; hence these flowers—Decoration Day once sectional, has now become National. Occasions like that, bring us again near our loved ones.

Awe, yes, sacred awe, filled our soul, as the gentle breeze carried to our ears, the sweet strains of immortal hymn, "Nearer my God to Thee;—As we lay the virgin leaf, and the new born flower upon the graves of our loved ones; our heart soul and affection, soars up into regions where in a great album are written the names of those "who have washed their souls white in the blood of the lamb.—Why is all this?"

It is to do honor to the deeds of the departed, in as much as Memorial is written on every brow. It is to infuse patriotism in the hearts of the living, and to manifest to the world at large, that the grave knows no rank, distinction, denomination or esteem.—All one brotherhood all brought to one common level.

Hymenial.

A beautiful wedding occurred at the home of M. H. Smith of Stella, at high noon on Wednesday June 5, Miss Eura, youngest daughter, and Mr. Joseph Davis of Snook were the contracting parties. Rev. B. F. Evans of the Methodist Church, officiating. The attendants were Henry Smith, brother of the bride and Dora Johnston. Bernice Coultray of McArthur played the wedding march.

The wedded couple received many beautiful presents as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Amerine of Lancaster, table set; Harry and Bernice Coultray, silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coultray of Troy, silver teaspoons; Dora Johnston, china spoon tray; Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Smith, silver table spoons and bed spread; Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, table linen and bed spread; Mr. and Mrs. James Cain, cake stand and bread plate; Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore Davis, grateshield; Henry Smith, pair of towels; Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Smith, of Pomeroy pair of lace curtains; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bone, cake stand and lamp; Mr. and Mrs. P. Smith of McArthur, china fruit dish, knives and forks; Minnie Witherspoon, vinegar cask; Miss Lena Smith, pair of lace curtains; Minnie and Wright Amerine, bread plate and toothpick holder; Mr. and Mrs. James Blackston, pillow shams and towels; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blackston, cake stand; Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, water set; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schall, table set, cake dish and butter dish; Howard Griffith, water pitcher, salt and pepper shaker and tooth pick holder.

On the following day, forty invited guests assembled at the home of the groom's father, Mr. James Davis of Snook, among the invited guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. West, Mr. and Mrs. C. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. George Saver and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Collins of Logan; Mrs. Ida Mauk of Mo. and Miss Hattie Secret of Lancaster. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent, having music, both vocal and instrumental, which all enjoyed. The SENTINEL joins with the many friends of the young couple in hearty congratulations and tender wishes for a long and happy life, as free from cares and as full of joy as good old Father Time can bear to the children of man.

The Bride has thanks of the printer for kind remembrance of Cake.
